

Cheryl Lynn Cole

December 24, 1955 - July 9, 2020

Cheryl Lynn Cole, daughter of Ruby J. Marx and William A. Marx, born in Monroe, MI on December 24, 1955 passed away peacefully on July 9, 2020 surrounded by her family. As a child Cheryl moved a lot to different areas of the country including Chicago and Rochester, until her family settled in Climax when she was a teenager. Cheryl attended Cocksackie-Athens High School where she met the love of her life, Bounce Cole. After attending Maria College with her lifelong friend Sharon Frisbee she became a Registered Nurse and then married Bounce in 1976. Shortly after, they started their family and to know Cheryl was to know that her children meant the world to her. Being a mother was incredibly rewarding but having and spending time with her grandchildren was the highlight of her life. She went on to practice nursing in many different fields. She enjoyed caring for patients and was dedicated to being a mentor to her fellow coworkers and friends.

Cheryl enjoyed travelling with family to places like Disney, the OBX or any other beach, driving cross-country and Italy. She enjoyed cooking, reading, crocheting, gardening and laying by the pool. Any time spent with her grandchildren from reading books, having sleepovers, watching movies or snuggling on the couch were always times she enjoyed. Celebrating the holidays and hosting family and friends for her annual Birthday/Christmas party was always something she looked forward to. Her strength and resilience was on full display after she was suddenly diagnosed with a glioblastoma 3 years ago. Valiantly she underwent surgery, radiation and chemotherapy and entered a clinical trial at Memorial Sloan Kettering to aid in the further eradication of this terrible disease.

Tragically Cheryl survived the loss of her son, Bradley in 2013 but the family takes comfort in the fact that she no longer will feel the pain of the loss of her child and that they may finally rest in peace together. Cheryl is also predeceased by her parents Ruby Marx and William Marx, her father-in-law Walter Cole Sr. and her nephew Ehren Sherow.

Cheryl is survived by her devoted husband of 43 years, Bounce Cole, her children Erica Cole, Gregory (Nikki) Cole, Adam (Marliesse) Cole as well as her grandchildren Bryce, Piper, Payton and Josephine. She is also survived by her sister Debby Sherow, brother Bill (Heather) Marx Jr., brothers-in-law Randy Sherow, David (Coleen) Cole, Jim (Tammy) Cole, mother-in-law Rita Cole and many other family members too numerous to list.

The family would like to thank all the members of the healthcare team that so selflessly delivered the best care to our mother especially Dr. David Semenoff of Albany Medical Center, Dr. Alexandra Miller at Memorial Sloan Kettering and Dr. Mihir Raval at NYOH. The family is forever grateful for their dedication to their field and compassionate care. A private celebration of life will take place at a future date. In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to the NYOH Community Cancer Foundation, 449 Route 146, Suite 101, Clifton Park, NY 12065.

Condolences may be made at <http://www.wcbradyssonsinc.net>.

Comments

---

“ Cheryl was one of the smartest, funniest, caring people I know. She also scared the hell out of me. When she was 8 months pregnant with Adam I threw a forecracker at a 4th of July picnic, that landed near her. I hid behind Walter when she came after me. RIP Cheryl.

Thomas McGuigan - July 22, 2020 at 12:19 PM

---

“ One of the best people I have had the privilege of knowing in my life. If you happened to be lucky enough to know Cheryl and be loved by Cheryl, count yourself a very fortunate person. Smart, funny, beautiful, dedicated are just a few of the adjectives that come to mind when I think of my cousin. I will miss her so much.

Jason Keilman - July 16, 2020 at 12:21 PM

“ If you were honest with Cheryl, you earned her respect. But she could see through BS quite quickly. Intelligent and pretty but fiercely family oriented, There were very few subjects she could not keep up with in conversation. I will miss her smile and especially the look she gave you when she knew you were full of crap. God bless you Cheryl. Condolences and respect to Bounce, Erica, Greg Bill and families.

John Murphy - July 22, 2020 at 09:05 PM

---

“ Bounce, I am so sorry to her of your wife's passing. Sending condolences and prayers to you and your family. Joanne Donato Van Epps

Joanne Van Epps - July 15, 2020 at 01:12 PM

---

“ Sending love and blessings to Bounce and all.....grew up with Bounce, and high school with Cheryl. Blessed to have both in my life and to be a very small part of the Cole family through the marriage of my sister Tammy and Jim. Wish you all peace and comfort.

Kathy Hulbert - July 14, 2020 at 07:06 AM

---

“ So sorry to hear about your loss. She was a great lady and she will be missed by everyone who knew her

Henry hotaling - July 15, 2020 at 09:04 AM

---

“ Bounce, Erica, Greg, and Adam

So sorry to hear about Cheryl, my deepest sympathy to all of you, I have many good memories of growing up with Cheryl, know you are in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

Linda Spano - July 14, 2020 at 05:53 AM

---

“ So sorry for your loss, from the entire staff of Apheresis at Albany Medical.Center, she was like family, we loved her and celebrate her life with you all.

Herma Lee - July 13, 2020 at 09:14 PM

---

“ Heaven holds a new bloom...and her name is Cheryl

Wendi & Mike Carroll - July 13, 2020 at 06:02 PM

---

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

W C Brady's Sons - July 13, 2020 at 09:22 AM