Donnie was a fiercely loyal and protective husband, father, brother, son, uncle, and friend. He never took the easy way out or did anything halfway. He walked many paths throughout his life, some straight and some not so straight, which gave him the gift of being a great teacher to all who crossed his path because his lessons were always sincere, honest, and from his heart.

Donnie was a humble man who didn't see the help he gave or his accomplishments. To him it is just what you do. He was a man of strong convictions. Although not a very tall man, he had a large presence. He gave his dear wife his love, strength, and his moral compass to go forward. Memories are forever.

“ Uncle Donnie filled my life with his kindness. I was blessed to be loved and seen by him. I cherish everyone of the letters he and I shared over many years. He wrote in a way that meant I could always ‘hear his voice’ when I read one of his long letters. One of my most cherished memories is seeing his tears and love as I walked down the aisle with my new husband on my wedding day. I stopped and we hugged as he whispered in my ear ... ‘I love you Hon.’ I love you Uncle Donnie.
