“ Dear Richard, I am deeply saddened by Elaine's passing, I enjoyed our visits in the office and our conversations about people and the locality. She always had a smile and never a complaint when she may not have felt well. I will miss her. My deepest condolences. Suzanne Losa RDH

“ I was so saddened to hear about Elaine's passing and wanted to express my sincere condolences to her husband, Richard, her children and grandchildren and her siblings, Anne and Michael.

I called Elaine this past summer to say hello and to ask her about her recollection of the Anderson family history since I would soon be traveling to Scandinavia including Copenhagen with my husband and son.

She told me what she knew about the family and I heard about horse traders in Copenhagen and how ChristiAn and Anna were sponsored in Boston and may have met each other there. It was fascinating to talk to her about what she knew regarding the family and I will cherish that conversation forever.

I'm sure she is catching up with lots of family now in heaven including catching up with my dad, Carl.

He always had some very "tall" stories to tell. Lol

You are all in my thoughts and prayers and my mom's too (Anna)

“ Sending our love and remembering Elaine's joyful laugh, bright smile, and her kind eyes that were a reflection all the goodness that she carried in her heart. Some of my best memories from my youth are of my "country" cousins and the love that surrounded me when I was there. Love, Clinton and Rafael

“ Dear all: It was very special when you brought Uncle Walt into your family. He loved you and Olive dearly. Elaine was so fortunate to find the love of her life with Richard - - you were a very special couple. Her love and respect for Ann & Mike should always be treasured. She was so proud of Stephanie & Debbie and their families. We haven't really kept in touch the last few years -- but still remember the lovely day at Mike's. May the memories stay in your hearts forever!! They can never be taken away. Our love to you all.

“ My memories of Elaine go way back, of course, to the dawn of my consciousness. The eldest of my country cousins. The first one with a horse -- Barney, was it? (She was the one who road western -- where else would I have learned about the publication "Western Horseman"? Certainly no one I knew in the Bronx was going to be reading it.) And Shep -- they had dogs up there too. From afar, I remember her as appearing to be the belle of the ball in high school. And then she went away to college! All the way to Michigan. We had this one cousin, Leo Nilon, who had gone away to college, but we never met him because he stayed away. So this was all quite exciting. My memories of my numerous and lengthy visits with Olive, Elaine, Anne, Michael, and later Walt are nothing but fond. And later she brought Richie, Steffie and Debbie into my life. As they taught us in Latin class, Ave atque vale, Elaine!

“ Elaine was my older sister and was always there for me. We talked on the phone almost every day. When I had surgery she was there to support me and my daughter. What a gift that was. I only had one sister and she was the BEST. I will miss her every day, there is an empty spot in my heart, which I will fill with wonderful memories of our time together. Elaine, I know you are with God in Heaven right now, no more pain. Love you always and forever, Anne
