“Dad, today my heart is filled with sorrow and regret at your passing. So much more was meant for us, I am certain of it. So many empty years between us, for which I cannot find a good reason. I was sure that one day we would find each other again, but fate intervened and took you far too soon. You leave me now with so much left unfinished, so much left unsaid, and so many questions never to be answered.

I will remember the good times we shared and cherish and hold onto their memories as long as I possibly can, with the hopes that one day we will meet again and be together as we were meant to be.

You will be forever loved and missed.

“ To my son Alan (chopper) , I love you and will miss you so very much. You will remain in my heart always. It seems like only yesterday that I held you in my arms as a baby. Hard to believe that God took you home so soon. Guess it has been a long time since someone called you Chopper. That was the nickname that your Dad gave you when you were very small. RIP my son. We will be together in Heaven one day. Until then, I have all my memories of your life to share with everyone. My love goes with you on your journey home.

“ Alan you will be truly missed by everyone that ever knew you. You will be especially missed by your entire family. No party was ever complete without you being there. You knew how to make people laugh and smile. If someone needed your help you were right there to do what you could to help out. Oh how you loved to cook. Life is not going to be the same without you my dear brother. You did so much to help me when we lost our house from a fire. You went out of your way to replace the Elvis picture that was destroyed. It still hangs on my wall to this day. I will cherish it everyday and think of you when I look at it. I love you my little brother and I am so going to miss you.

“ One of my most favorite memories of my brother is when he wrote a song for my girls . It was called "The ice cream man" he would snap his fingers and sing his song to them. " hey now I'm the Ice cream man ... I got chocolate , nilla, and strawberry too .what kinda flavor can I get for you ?" When he tought his nieces the words , he had them sing " The ice cream man" along with him. Truly a priceless memory I will cherish , and will always bring a smile to my face and love to my heart .
I love you my brother .
