“ May you finally receive the peace & happiness you always wanted. Life doesn't always go as smoothly as hope for but, we always looked out for each other. I will miss you & forever keep in my heart the many things we shared together, you're my younger brother and even when we would disagree, you always knew I wanted good things for you. I knew that, because you would reach out and ask for advice or guidance again. In a way that let me know I was still your big brother & important to you .Eternal peace & love to my brother.

“ Never thought I would see the day for a long time that I would have to bury you Dad. Through thick and thin we stuck by each others side and picked each other up when the other one was down. From long convos about the Yankees and football, to just shooting the shit about nothing, I'll forever cherish those moments. I'll continue to make you proud and become more and more successful each day. Rest peacefully I know for sure we will meet again one day. Love Edward.
