

Mr. Arthur Carl Harm

February 9, 1929 - December 21, 2015

Arthur Carl Harm, 86, passed away in Schenectady, NY on Monday, December 21, 2015.

Born in West New York, New Jersey, Arthur grew up in Westwood, NJ, son of Carl and Elsie (Weirauch) Harm. A graduate of Westwood High School, Arthur served in the Army during the Korean War. In 1956 he married Catherine Gustafson and in 1969 they moved their family from Westwood, NJ to Cairo, NY to take on the challenge of operating a motel, Holiday House Motor Court, for 30 years.

In addition to operating the motel, Arthur was employed as a Heat and Frost Insulator, Local 12, NYC. After retiring from Local 12, Arthur and Catherine took up a seasonal residence in Stuart, Florida. Stuart became a permanent residence until July 2014 when they moved back upstate to be closer to family.

Always a hard worker, operating a motel was well suited to Art's friendly personality. In addition to socializing with the guests, Art enjoyed fishing and golf in New York and Florida. Art loved taking photographs of friends and family and was always happy to enjoy a Manhattan.

Arthur is pre-deceased by sister Lorraine and brother-in-law Walter Netzke, and sister Carol and brother-in-law Charles McCall.

He is survived by his wife Catherine, daughter Nancy (Jack), sons Arthur Jr. (Kathleen) and Peter (Kim) and grandchildren Jessica (Anthony), Kyle, Peter Jr. (Nicole), Dylan, Matthew and Michaela, and great-grandson Anthony Jr. as well as nieces and nephews.

Services will held at a later date at the Saratoga National Cemetery.
