“ So many memories of a devoted mother. Whether she was cheering on her daughter or her teammates you could always hear her supportive voice. She was also a patient teacher at K and D where I worked with her one summer. I will forever remember her making me feel welcome in her home during sleepovers and in general feeling supported in anything I did. She blessed the world with two daughters who I shared my childhood with. Jennifer and Colleen you will miss her dearly but that is because you were blessed with a great Mom. Sending your family hugs .

“ I miss you mom. I want to wrap my arms around you and never let go. My heart hurts. I want to call you at 4:44am like always. I want to see you drive up after school to say hi to me and CJ while we're waiting for the school bus. I want to hear the excitement in your voice and see the joy on your face when talking about your grandchildren and great grandchildren. I want so much, to have one more minute with you, but it wouldn't be enough. Trying to be strong. I'm struggling. Mom, I love you. I love you to the moon and back, through the stars in the sky and beyond. This is the hardest thing I've ever had to do. I love you mom. I love you ❤️
