“ Chris was our friend for along time at camp .He is very hard worker and do anything that people need he was there to help you. At the event that the camp had he was that dancing guy an if he see you sitting he come and made you get up and dance with him.He was very jolly guy if we're sad he made you laugh.He came down on his golf cart an sat down and talk about the good days of camp then he go his camper . R IP Chris you are going to be missed
