“Buddy buddy”.

How I will miss those words from you. Depending on their tone, they could mean different things - an exclamation of happiness and joy or of despair and worry. Regardless of what meaning they held, they were good to hear and am glad to have heard them many times.

Everything about you was outsized - your laugh, your personality, your dreams. You were never afraid to dream. But of all those things it was your heart that was the biggest - without a doubt. You wanted people to be happy and enjoy themselves - this was at your core and is apparent from your life's work. After all, those who knew you know you were a big kid yourself. Quite an accomplishment, Craig, from the out back shack behind the house in RT to West Bridge Street. Your parents would have been so very proud. Not only that but along the way you and Kathy managed to raise two wonderful children and become grandparents. You will be missed more than you know.

There are some things you can replace and others you cannot. The corner of West Main and West Bridge Street just won't be the same. Your absence has left a void there, one that probably won't be filled anytime soon.

You used to say that you were here for a good time, not a long time. So buddy buddy, I will remember the Rock Cruises, the German and Irish Festivals, the IAPPA Conventions, the Dead shows (and one border crossing in particular), and the many good times we shared. So save me a seat, bro - next time I see you we'll have a lot of catching up to do. Love ya Craig

“ Dear Kathy, Vicki, Nykee, and all of Craig’s loved ones, it is with much sorrow that I reach out to say that Craig will be missed. I always enjoyed our talks, and I loved his great ideas. He was an admirable entrepreneur, I will miss seeing him at the ice cream stand. No more sorrow, no more pain, I know he is resting in the Lord Jesus. My heart and prayers are with all of you. Your sister in Christ, Pam.
