“ Darlene I'm so sincerely sorry to hear about your passing. Joey and the boys are in my thoughts and prayers always. I have so many great memories of watching you and my mom Sharon, husband Billy, aunt Eileen and uncle Louie, Uncle Timmy and Joey playing cards. Now you all are together playing in heaven. Give all of them my love. I miss you all so very much ❤️

“ Sending my love and prayers to the entire family of this most beautiful woman, wife and mother. She will be greatly missed. She would call her son Joe at work by Facetime and if he was busy would introduce her to us, and one day I had the pleasure of having the most wonderful conversation with her.

Tracy, so very sorry to read of Darlene's passing. She was a great lady. I hope you are doing well and send you virtual hugs. So many years have passed since the old DuBois Pharmacy days in Catskill. I think of you often when talking old Catskill days with friends.
