

Deborah L. Snyder

July 20, 1956 - January 14, 2026

Deborah Lynn (Dudley) Snyder, of West Coxsackie, NY passed away peacefully on January 14th, 2026, at the age of 69. She will be greatly missed by the numerous friends that were also family. She was a second mom to so many including her brother Stew, whom she helped raise from the day he was born.

Debbie was a hard worker, neat freak, free spirit and stubborn - but always kept it real. She was constantly thinking of others and was a great listener with many long conversations that would make you feel better or have you laughing your butt off. Her quick wit and incredible comebacks will never be forgotten.

She loved being in the country, especially enjoying the stars, sun, and the moon. Her kindness also extended to animals, specifically hummingbirds and cardinals which were favorite to watch.

Deb enjoyed various music including Pink Floyd, Allman Brothers and Kenny Rogers. She attended numerous festivals, concerts, and fireworks, always having a great time. She was such a happy, kind, loving and fun person. Always surrounded by family and friends that will never forget her and always honor her memory.

Deborah is survived by her loving brothers, Stewart, Dennis, and Charlie. She is predeceased by her parents, Harry and Helen (Coumbes) Dudley, and her brother, Lester Dudley.

Debbie did not want a funeral but instead wanted a memorial to celebrate her life which will be announced at a later date. If you would like to be included on the notification list for her memorial please keep an eye on her Facebook page.
