“ Not a day goes by but I don't think of you. I have you on my dresser where I can look at you everyday. My sun is getting so big, I really wish you two would have been able to spend more time together. I wish I was able to spend more time with you. I kind of can't forgive myself for not putting more effort into seeing you more. I give anything to have one more day with you one more conversation one more chance to just look at you and have you hug me and tell me everything's going to be all right. I'll always be your little girl I love you Daddy Happy Thanksgiving
