

Drusiana "Dolly" Mansfield

November 17, 1929 - January 21, 2024

Drusiana "Dolly" Mansfield, 94 passed away peacefully into her Lord's arms on January 21st, 2024 at Daughters of Sarah Rehabilitation Center. She was born November 17th, 1929 in Coxsackie, New York to the late Anthony Adamo and Theresa Lucia Adamo.

She was predeceased by her loving husband George Mansfield and her brother Edward Adamo.

In her early years she attended school in Ridgewood, Queens, NY at PS-71 where she developed everlasting friends and relationships. Dolly was a graduate of Coxsackie-Athens

High School in 1948.

She was employed at A&P Tea Company in her earlier years. Then, was the bookkeeper at Adamo Dress Factory, the families business. But, the one she cherished the most was that of being a dedicated wife and mother to her three daughters. Her unwavering love for not only her family but everyone that she encountered was evident throughout her life.

Survivors include her three daughters Lynne (Robert) Riccardo, Lorie (Paul) Devine of Coxsackie and LeeAnn (Joseph) Crispo of East Greenbush. Also, her brother Joseph (Marilyn)

Adamo. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews who she adored.

Dolly was a proud member of The Gospel Community Church, she loved the Lord but has many questions for him. She was also a member of the Coxsackie Senior Center.

Dolly enjoyed reading, dancing, playing cards, animals, quality time with family and supporting George at his softball games. She taught 1 st grade religious instruction at St. Mary's Church.

George and Dolly enjoyed being snowbirds in Florida for 30 years, where they had a very active life. While in Florida they received a lot of love and support from her cousins, the Lucia family.

We would like to thank the staff at Daughters of Sarah Rehabilitation Center.

Also, a special thank you to our dear friend Donna Gianola who showed her tender loving care when her family needed it the most.

Our florist is Rizzo's House of Flowers, 233 Remsen St., Cohoes, NY 12047.

Relatives and friends are cordially invited to attend calling hours at the W.C.

“ Dear Lynne, Lori, and LeeAnn,
Sorry to hear about the loss of your mom. I remember her as a very nice lady. I last saw her back in the summer of 2022 one Friday night down at the Riverfront Park in Athens, during a concert. She recognized me and we had a nice chat.
Not sure if you guys remember me, but we are cousins. My grandparents were Joe and Marie Adamo from Coeymans. My parents were Theresa and Perry DeBacco - the barber - from Ravenna.
From my family to yours, our thoughts and prayers are with you.
Sincerely,
Sandy DeBacco - your cousin from Ravenna

*Dear LeeAnn, Lori & Lynne,
I'm saddened by the news but I know your Mom's Great Faith In God. She is at rest with her dear Husband, your Daddy 😊 I will always remember Dolly with a beautiful smile on her face. Her words were always sweet and kind. I go way back with you three girls and your Mom & your Dad. They always made me feel like I was part of your family ❤️ My last memory of your Mom was her sitting in her back yard. Enjoying the great weather and admiring the beautiful flowers Lori had planted. I'm sending my condolences to you all and the rest of the family. 🙏🙏🙏 I will always keep Dolly in my heart and in my prayers. Sending you LeeAnn, Lori and Lynne much love and a huge hug during this time of mourning. ❤️🥹🙏 Love, Tricia Libassi & Family*

Dolly was family to me and my family. My mom and her mom Tessie were the best of friends. I remember the many days they would go and sit on the porch with my mom. And I would join them. She was a special lady and my family loved her and her family. I can't say enough about this beautiful lady. My deepest condolences to Lynn, LeeAnne and Laurie and the rest of her family. Gone from our home but never from my heart. My prayers go out to your family.

My deepest sympathy to Lynne, Lorie, & LeeAnn on the passing of your Mom. Dolly was like a second MOM to me when we were kids. I felt like I slept at your house every weekend. She was such a loving lady. I know you all have broken hearts right now but remember she is with your Dad & her Mom & Dad. Rest in peace Dolly we will all miss you💕 (Ray) Lorraine
