Eleanor June Blonk-Meyer, 75

(February 23, 1947-October 11, 2022)

Known to everyone as Junie, this intelligent, social and talented free spirit departed for higher realms, leaving her husband of 43 years, Chet Meyer, and dachshund, Winston.

From her teens, she supported herself and later got her esthetician's license in order to open Facial Dynamics, Inc., a one-woman salon that boasted a celebrity clientele, referred to her only by word-of-mouth. Junie set up business in a townhouse on the Upper East Side of New York City, boasting proudly that she started her business "on a credit card," a strong indication of her independence and entrepreneurial skill. Junie's odyssey began in Orange, NJ and came to its end in Catskill, NY, tucked securely in a woodsy house with a stunning mountain view and a trusty woodstove.

Onward and Upward, Darling Junie!

“ Dear June, Although i just realized you've departed us, I think of you from time to time. During our few years at Tremont Ave School (5-8 grades) you were always a friend to me and I to you. God Bless.
