

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Conine Albright

October 30, 1946 - February 17, 2017

Elizabeth Ann Conine Albright

October 30, 1946 – February 17, 2017

Elizabeth Ann Conine Albright, 70, longtime resident of Athens, passed away, February 17, 2017, following a lengthy illness.

Beth leaves behind her husband Timothy of fifty-two years. Beth and Tim met in Kindergarten and graduated together from Coxsackie-Athens Central School in 1964 and married soon thereafter. Beth and Tim raised three children: Nancy Palmateer (Lee) sons Benjamin, Elliott and Samuel, of Athens; Leslie Albright (Dan Kohler) son Marion, of Alexandria, VA, and; Timothy Albright Jr., of Athens.

First and foremost, Beth was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Beth and Tim had a long and happy marriage, enjoying many family events including backyard barbeques, hikes at North Lake, hosting dinners in her beloved family home and perhaps a glass or two of chardonnay. She especially enjoyed attending her grandsons' sporting events. Beth graduated from Columbia Memorial Hospital's nursing program and for many years was a Registered Nurse in obstetrics at Memorial Hospital of Greene County, Catskill. Later Beth served as oncology treatment nurse and intake coordinator at NY Oncology and Hematology in Albany before retiring in 2008.

Beth was a life long member of the the First Dutch Reformed Church of Athens. Beth was an avid fan of classical music, making many trips to the Berkshires for performances of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Beth and Tim enjoyed frequent visits to Washington, DC to visit their daughter Leslie, as well as annual family trips to Cape Cod, and to California to visit her brother Charles. Beth was always an avid reader and later enjoyed traveling in her retirement years with her husband Tim.

Beth is predeceased by her parents, Frances Daley Conine of Athens and Charles Addison Conine of Lake Worth, FL, and In-laws Leonard and Ruth Overbaugh Hotaling of Earlton. In addition to her husband and children Beth is survived by her brother Charles A. Conine of Palm Springs, CA; brothers-in-law Harry (Sue) and William (Bitta) Albright of Earlton; an aunt, Natalie Evans Daley, of Plattsburgh, NY and many cousins.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend calling hours on Tuesday, February 21, 2017 at Richards Funeral Home , 28 North Vernon Street, Athens, N.Y. from 2-4 and 6-8 P.M. and a Memorial Service and Celebration of life will be held on Wednesday, February 22, 2017, at the First Reformed Church of Athens beginning at 11:00 A.M. The family requests that in lieu of flowers donations may be made to the First Reformed Church-Athens. The family wishes to extend its gratitude to the staff at The Pines, Catskill and its charge nurse Mary Pat Leonard, and to Nancy Cummings, patient advocate and director of the Alzheimer's Center at Albany Medical Center, who provided support for Beth, Tim and the family. The family also expresses love and thanks to Beth's close family members and lifelong friends who remain a continuing source of comfort.

Condolences may be made at www.richardsfuneralhomeinc.net.

“ Tim & family,...Deepest sympathy for your heartbreaking loss. May Beth rest in peace after one of life's cruelest struggles. I will always remember her with much love & joy for having been a wonderful part of high school life, & for keeping in touch for over 50 years. With Beth & "the Athens" kids, I always had memorable, fun times in school, at dances, cheerleading & at her house. There was always something new / "exciting" going on with Beth around. She leaves behind a most devoted & accomplished family.....a tribute to her effect on anyone who knew her throughout her life. Beth's joyous spirit & zest for life were a gift to us all. Few people can boast working with a dedicated professional who also becomes a dear friend. I was fortunate to find that in Beth. I am forever grateful that some of my fondest, yet comical memories are moments shared with her on the OB unit. Thank you dear friend, role model, kind and gentle soul! May you Rest In Peace, under God's loving care.

Beth (and Tim) have been life-long friends, from elementary school through high school.. When I was a college student at Cobleskill, as was Tim, they were newlyweds, and had their own apartment downtown. They invited me to their place for dinner many times. Tim, who was a Village Trustee in Athens when I was the Police Chief, was actually my boss. We were also confirmed together at our beloved home Church. I am so sad to learn of Beth's passing, although her suffering is over now, and she is at peace at her FOREVER home.
