“ My dear sweet Aunt Ethel. My first memory with you is being part of your wedding. There isn't much that I remember, only that you choose me to be part of your day. I was around 4 or 5 when you and Uncle Jack said I do. No one ever would have known that you were my aunt through marriage.

Over the years we grew close. I enjoyed the few summers that I spent with you. It was nice to get away from the city for a couple of weeks. I think that's when I realized I love being part of nature.
Another memory is you taught me how to get a crease in my pants without having to iron the crease in. At that time I just thought it was cool to hang my pants that way.

Over the years we wrote to each other or sent cards. You were my longest pen pal :-)

I will miss you but I know that you are here in not only my fond memories but those of your loved ones.

Love you, Rosey (RoRo)
