March 19, 1938 - November 26, 2020

Frank A. Deyo Sr, 82, of Earlton, NY passed away suddenly on November 26, 2020.

Frank was born on March 19, 1938 in Catskill, NY to the late Laura and Willard Deyo. He grew up with his many brothers and sisters and resided in Earlton, NY for a majority of his life. For a loyal 32 years, he was employed with the Catskill's Daily Mail where he made many lifelong friends along the way.

On September 2, 1978, Frank married and spent a beautiful 41 years with his best friend and the love of his life, Gail Deyo. They went on many weekend trips to enjoy the ocean together, they enjoyed going to the casinos to play the penny slot machines, and even simpler days of just sitting by the water fishing together or watching The New York Yankees and TV game shows. They spent as much time as they could surrounded by their family and friends, making lifelong memories and laughing. Gail predeceased Frank on December 10, 2019 and they are now joined together again.

Together, Frank and Gail raised their five children. He is survived by his daughter Michelle, and step-children Sandy and Jimmy. Frank is predeceased by his son Frank Deyo Jr., and his step-daughter Kathy Sergy. In their later years, they shared their love with their beloved Chihuahua, Lily, whom they took everywhere with them. In addition to their three surviving children, Frank is also survived by his grandchildren Crystal, Ashley, Dylan and Destiney, great-grand children Rhiannon, Colin and Alana, in addition to many extended grandchildren, family and friends.

Frank was a devoted and loving husband, son, brother, uncle, father, grandfather and friend. Anyone who has met him can vouch that he is the kindest man who would go out of his way to help just about anyone, making sure they were safe, happy and healthy. He will surely be missed by all.
