“ I love you so much. This isn't easy at all. Not one day goes by where you're not on my mind. When I need to tell someone something or need advice you're still the first one that comes to my mind. It's really hard. I miss you so much. You were like my twin but a year apart. I still feel like half of me is missing. I never thought I'd be without you. Happy late birthday bro.

“ Fred,

I don't know where to start. I've been thinking for the past week as to what I wanted to share out of the time we got to be together. I just can't believe this is real. I can't believe your gone. I always thought there was time. Time for us to get our lives together, time for us to fix the mistakes we made, time for us to forgive eachother and see eachother again. I just thought there was time. You'll always be my broken man with a heart of pure gold. I'm sorry that this is how our story ends, I hoped there would be a time down the road where we'd meet again. But I'll hold onto the memories we made until i see you again. There are so many good memories with you that I have been reliving since I got the news. My all time favorite though would be right after we first met when we were riding down 9w in the jeep you were singing some 90s rap with me and laughing at some of the music I had on my phone when you reached over and linked our pinkies together. You looked like you just won the lottery. The smile on your face that day made me fall even more in love with you. I loved you since the first moment I saw you and the 9 months I knew you and got to spend with you will always be close to my heart. I wish we had more time, just five minutes. Just one more phone call so I could tell you everything I should of said the last time we talked. You were always just so happy and it was infectious I don't think anyone could be near you and not experience the light that shone through you and not walk away a better person because of you. I will always have you in my heart and the time I got to be by your side I will cherish long after my time is done. I know God is happy because he got one of his most purest souls back, keep looking over your family and know that we all love you. Thank you for loving me like you did and being my rock when I needed it, my clown when I was sad and my shoulder to cry on when I fell apart. Thank you for introducing me to your family I am so grateful for them. Hannah has helped me so much with all of this and I know you are looking down happy we are here for eachother you always knew we'd be amazing friends.

With all of my love Fred rest in peace.

“ My name is Gloria Hurt and I worked with Fred at his last job. First of all I want to say that Fred's parents raised a fine sweet and respectful young man. We bonded so quickly. We shared movies we watched.

I miss Fred so much. I'm blessed that I was able to know him even if it was short. Fred's birthday is two days before mine. Fred always had a smile and very positive. My prayers are with the family.

“ Fred I don't even know where to begin. I met you when I was 14 years old at cumbies in Greenville. you poked your head out a car window and screamed my way so I went to find out who you were. we exchanged phone numbers and that was where our story began. You had the most beautiful eyes i had ever seen and a beautiful smile! We really liked eachother. We hung out in a group at my best friends house and had a party and then her mom came home early and we jumped off her roof together and speeding up the 0 so fast it was so much fun lol that was the first time you brought me to your house and that's when I met your mom and your family. Shortly after that you introduced me to your brother Jeff and we started to hang out there more often. You two together were absolutely hilarious. We would all hang out until all hours of the night. Those times were a riot! I remember all the time we spent cruising around with Audri and chuckie and staying in the car lol. That was a crazy and fun summer. We drifted away for a little while after but stayed good friends and when we got older we came back together. You were living with silas up on the mountain. I would drive up the mountain all the time to see you even in a snow storm knowing I was scared of the mountain lol. Speaking of the snow... I let you drive my truck all the time but one day while there was snow on the road you decided it was a good idea to try to drift and got us stuck on the side of the road over looking a cliff lol I told you it want meant to drift lol. I remember helping you and silas move with that truck. I also remember that day you drove to your friends house and that was the day you introduced me to Dalia and Scott. You had some pretty cool friends. I also remember us going to the movies on the mountain it was a cute little place. I had a lot of fun with you years ago. You were always a really sweet guy even when times were rough you still knew what to say and you were an awesome friend. You will never be forgotten Fred and you will always be missed! Rest in Paradise Fred Miner.

“ You were my best friend and my brother. We were attached at the hip growing up, and we did everything together, whether it was for fun or mischief; All of those times hiking the mountains, jumping off cliffs, grabbing rocks to sink to the bottom of the lake, jumping off dams with our bikes, paint balling the principles house, and always sticking up for one another. We were always there for one another, and now that you left this place behind I won't be able to hold up my end of the bargain, but I know you'll still be there watching over me. I love you so much brother, and not a day has gone by without you on my mind. I know your life was everything but easy, and now you can finally take a break and rest. I promise I will be there for the family when they need me, and I won't let you down. I love you brother, RIP. Fred Miner

“ I don't even know what to say. I can't believe you are really gone. 18 years of memories, 18 years of being troublesome kids and spending days, weeks, months, years on end hanging out. Everything from building forts in the woods to detention, to being productive adults. You were my go to for everything, you were my best friend 🥺. I remember when we were little kids and had a best friend wedding in the field haha, the sweet ass cabin in the woods, the tree house on the edge of the woods, sleep overs in Hannah's bed and trying to stuff you, Hannah, Silas, josh all in the same bed and we couldn't fit so me and Hannah went downstairs and you followed us and were trying to make us laugh. I don't even know how to begin to accept this 😞 It's so unreal. I love you so much Fred. I'm going miss you more than you'll ever know. My heart hurts so much right now. It just is not fair...Rest easy Fred. See those beautiful blue eyes in the future!

“ Fred was more than a brother, he was my bestfriend. We could call each other up at 2 am and talk or to come get one another. We told each other anything and everything. He loved his family so much. He was there for me no matter what happened or what I did. He was always there to give me advice, back me up on something, handle a situation for me, tell me to cut my shit, or congratulate me. No matter what it was, he was by my side. If I was having a freak out or breakdown he could always calm me down. He always knew what to say and how to handle me in any mood. When I needed him most he dropped everything, showed up at my house and told me to pack clothes cause I was staying for a few days. He always tried to take care of me when I couldn't take care of myself. He could tell when I was upset, he'd let me hug him as long as I needed and would tell me everything would be fine. We talked everyday, our mornings would start with a picture of our coffee cups and no matter how many times we would talk that day he always told me he loved me and he missed me. He really was my bestfriend. He's the best big brother anyone could have been asked for. I love you and miss you more then anyone could ever imagine Fred. Give Dad, Lil Jeff and Diesel lots of hugs and kisses for me.

I talked to you every week and you were my same fred - Happy Everything going well. You and Joshua were so close and you stayed with us months at a time when you were with him always so sweet - so respectful - so LOVING. This broke my heart I love you so. You will forever be in my heart and soul. You could always make me laugh even when I didn't feel like it. And you gave the BEST hugs. I hope your at peace now - no worries - no pain just being your sweet self. You have no idea how much I'll miss talking to you every week.
