“ I reconnected with Fred shortly after I moved back to my family home on Second Street in Athens. I saw him at the Village Building one day and mentioned that I found some pictures of his family while going through my Mom's albums and asked if he would like to have them. He stopped by quite a few times after that and we shared a lot of memories talking about his family and mine. I loved listening to his stories of the old days, reminding me of things I hadn't thought about in years. If I were walking my dog, Fred always blew his horn or stopped by to chat. I will miss those visits and talks but will cherish my memories of them. Rest in peace my dear Fred, I will miss you.

My sincere condolences to his family with love, Donna (Lackie) Mongiardo

Fred, one of the last truly honest men in the area. Always helped all, never asked for anything in return, and supported them that were in need. A person of faith, truth, and family never to be forgotten.
