“ Gail and I worked together at Ferncliff Nursing Home. She was a very caring nurse. On a New Years Eve we spent 12:00 midnight in one of the residents room, yelling Happy New Year and toasting with juice with her.

Gail, Frank and I spent quite a few times in Vermont with her Aunt Julie playing Scrabble and driving around. Aunt Julie made us feel so at home there. Gail was such a wonderful friend. She will be missed. I love you Gail. Now you are at home with our Lord Jesus Christ. I know I'll be with you again.

Love Sandy Caso

“ Gail was a very dear friend of mine. When I would come to New York to visit, Gail and Frank would make it a point to see me whether I had a vehicle or not. Gail was the kindest, sweetest, loveable person . I will deeply miss her.
