“ Psychology Class with Mr. C..... The day Mrs. Meili was subbing May 1986 and we got in trouble for passing something along the aisles. Because she and my mother were friends in school (CHS '65) we weren't send down to Turek's office. It was one of the few weeks I was not in in-school suspension that year. Somehow we both made it through and graduated, although I had to do summer school and did not walk across stage. Rest in Peace, man. So sorry to read you're gone.
