

Gayle M. Palmer

July 14, 1949 - September 24, 2024

Gayle Marie Palmer (Clapper) 75, of Coxsackie, passed away on September 24, 2024, following a courageous battle with cancer.

Gayle was born in Catskill, NY, the daughter of George and Vivian (Durham) Clapper. She graduated from Catskill High School and completed studies at Mildred Elley Business School. She spent her entire professional career in service at the New York State Law Reporting Bureau for the New York Court of Appeals.

Gayle was predeceased by her husband, Dale S. Palmer and is survived by her children Holly Palmer Sharp (Christopher) and Jay Palmer (Amanda), grandchildren Fintan Sharp and Vivian Palmer, sister Laurie Jeune (Audin), aunt Kathleen Durham, and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Gayle loved reading, Broadway musicals, Christmas, dinners out, Hallmark movies, afternoons at the pool and trips to the shore with her family. Gayle loved her family and friends deeply and delighted in being a grandmother. She adored people, and was eager to connect with and befriend all who she encountered. Gayle's joy, optimism and thirst for life will long outlive her.

Calling Hours for Gayle will be Sunday, September 29th, 2024 from 11-1pm at

W.C Brady's Sons Inc. located at 97 Mansion Street, Coxsackie, NY, 12051.

There will also be a Memorial Service at W.C Brady's Sons Inc. on Monday, September 30th, 2024 beginning at 11am with Pastor Lee from the United Methodist Church officiating.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Gayle's memory to Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center (<https://giving.mskcc.org/>). Her family is very grateful for the kind and compassionate care given her at Sloan Kettering and at The Pines of Catskill.

“ Holly & Jay and your families,

David and I send you our sincere condolences on the passing of your mother. She often talked of how lucky she was to have you both and how unselfishly you helped her during her courageous fight with cancer. We will miss her quirky humor and generosity, and most of all her boisterous spirit!
