“ Pop, it's so hard to believe that someone so full of life with still such a remarkable wit can pass away. I will never forget all of our times together. Our times in Florida were priceless and some of the best experiences of my life. Looking back at pictures shows me how supportive you were of me even when I was young. Coming to award ceremonies, baseball games, grandparents day in elementary school, birthday parties are some of the few examples. Time is precious and taking that time to spend with your grandchildren shows how much you cared. I've learned so much from you over the years but two things you taught me that I will never forget are: 1. Live life to the fullest and treasure every moment. 2. You are never too old to chase women around the room.

I love you Pop and I know that one day we will be united again.

“ I remember dancing at the Brauhaus with Jerry, Sue and George. It was late night and time to go home and as we headed out to the dark parking lot all hot, sweaty and tired, George was still clicking his heels (literally) off the ground! This was only a few years ago. Always, the life of the party, but also the loving father, grandfather and friend. Thank you George for sharing your infectious love of life with all of us. It was a life well-lived. Love and Peace to your family.

“ I am pretty sure I will never be able to fill my Dad's shoes. His outgoing personality and sense of humor were an unexplainable one of a kind.
I am going to miss so much about him "but if I had to mention one thing" it would be that no matter where we were he would strike up a conversation with anyone and everyone.
Dad I love you and I know you are now safe in the arms of our loving savior.

Uncle George was always dressed his best, danced up a storm, always had a good joke, was the life of any party and will be missed by us all.

I have known George for almost 40 years, as a good hunting buddy, We spent many holidays together. His laughter, jokes, and sense of humor were always present. George loved to dance, and could be seen on the dance floor long after we younger folks were to tired to.. I will surely miss this man! RIP

I will miss George for many reasons. He was a great visitor and would stop often and share "Old Times". always a happy guy. He and his brothers did all the painting and wall papering at Spohler's Elm Grove in Greenville. All good friends of my Father-in-Law Fred. God Bless you George and Rest in Peace. We will all miss you and those dancing feet.
