“ The Decker family and my family grew up in the same neighborhood. Our moms were good acquaintances as well as neighbors. Us kids went to school together throughout high school. I would see Jim at Home Depot and chat for a minute here or there. Jim was a nice guy! My condolences, thoughts and prayers for his family.

“ I'm still in shock at the loss of our Jim at Home Depot. Always made us laugh with his stories and his great smile. From his pictures he shared on Facebook, he apparently was a fantastic cook as well. Going to miss my Mets and Giants buddy. There's a huge hole in our hearts at the store that will never be completely filled again. I hope he now knows how much we loved him. Goodbye my friend, Rest In Peace ❤️

“ I worked with Jim at Home Depot and always enjoyed his stories and good-natured ribbing. He was a pro and I never heard anymore say a bad word about him-- he was truly one of the good ones.
