“ There are so many words yet there are no words. Hearts are broken, tears are plentiful. Always a smile, a helping hand, someone to talk to, a true friend. You definitely left your mark in this world with your kindness and laughter. You will be missed dearly by so many. May we all find strength in the wonderful memories you shared with each of us by just being you. Til we meet again on the other side my friend. Love and prayers for your family.

“ Condolences and sorry for your loss to the Voulo family. I worked with Jim a little over twenty five years ago in Cairo, NY, and since then, I would see him occasionally in the EMS field or at a hospital while he was performing his paramedic duties. Over the years, we would greet each other by yelling out "Hey Newt" and having a good laugh over the greeting as it was for the past twenty five years. Jim had a great sense of humor.
