My heart aches with the loss of this great man. Was fortunate to know him. He took care of me when i needed a role model and father figure. I will never forget our time together and will always be Blessed by the memories we all shared. I pray you are well Angela and that you be healed and remember his love for you. Miss you both and know that God has him in a better place. Always wished you the best and hope you have all that you need and want in life. David M. Rosario
