“ Joe and Gladys were good friends of my late Ex Father In Law. I had some very funny times with him, and enjoyed many steaks at his restaurant in Roudtop. He had a great home with a great view. I loved being with him as he always remembered a story about me we called "The Baloney Story". I came back from hunting to my father in laws home, joe was there. I found a whole Baloney in the woods, in the snow, dropped by hunters./ We cut it up and ate it in the kitchen.

“ Joe and Gladys were like grandparents to me growing up. When I got older Joe was a true friend and was always full of joy. I have many, very fond memories hanging with Joe from terrifying driving experiences, to trying to avoid the smoke cloud from the cigar to great breakfast gatherings at his house with friends and family, before a great day of hunting. It was never a bad time with Joe but a lot of laughs and makings of great memories. He was always there to help anyone who needed help and had great stories to tell. Joe rest in peace and say Hi to Dad and Bucky. Love Carl & Teresa Warrings
