“ I want to send my condolences to the entire Rao family. I knew Joe for many years, but my fondest memory of him was when we went to watch Joe Frazier train for his first fight with Muhammad Ali in 1971 at Grossinger's Resort. Joe was an avid boxing fan as well as I was and we immediately clicked. Joe was a kind and wonderful husband and father. I never saw him when he wasn't smiling. You will be missed it was a pleasure knowing such a fine man. May God bless you.

“ My father, a truly wonderful gentleman, gave his all to his family. He loved my Mother so very very much and made sure everyone knew it, especially my Mom. Their love was one that you can only dream of- my Father was crazy about my Mother and she felt the same- they were an unstoppable team. My father worked so hard to give her and my sister and I, everything while we were growing up. A hard working man that helped anyone who needed it. A fair man. A man who was always a respectful one. A man that always did the right thing. My father could make you laugh - and if you hurt someone he loved, the advice given to you was to move far away, and change your name, etc. A dedicated friend, and family member, my father was there for you whenever you needed him. A friend to many people- My father taught me many things, gave me such wonderful advice, and was very supportive of all I did in life. He welcomed each one of my friends into our home without hesitation - made sure we were all taken care of. If you didn't know my Dad, you missed out on the OG of fellas. As my Grandmother would always say “God broke the mold after he made your father”. So true. I will miss you Daddy- Love your little girl forever
