“ My wife Pat and I would like to send our deepest sympathies to the family of Julia Byrne. I will always remember her as a friendly and caring lady and especially as the mother of six children, all of whom meant a lot to me as a teacher at Cairo-Durham High School. I could see in their ability, behavior, and friendliness the impact of their upbringing by Julia and her husband. I recall with fondness seeing her in Acra as I went to the post office or returned home one of her daughters from babysitting for my children. I am sorry that I could not be there to express my sympathies in person. Again, our condolences to Ann, Theresa, Julia, Peter, Tom, and Pat and the rest of her family.
