“ My deepest sympathies and condolences to the Flanagan family especially the siblings that were part of my life growing up in Athens. There are so many memories; whiffle ball on the dock, football on lower 2nd St (2 hand touch except on the sidelines when there were snow banks on the side of the road), basketball in the old Catholic church parking lot, the baseball and basketball games that Mike, Kenny and Joe made up with playing cards and dice that would occupy us on the days we weren't outside. Kenny was certainly a history buff as many a time he would leave a game to go home to use the bathroom and we wouldn't see him for 2 hours as he got distracted by some tv program about some historical event. I hope all of Kenny's family can gain a measure of peace and comfort from their memories of him as I have. Godspeed.

“ Kenny was a Bub. Though we saw eachother less and less over the years, upon passing he always went out of his way to greet me like a close friend. From adolescence to adulthood he always treated me with respect and left me laughing. My sincere condolences to the family. Love you guys.
