“ My first memories of Laura were on Main St. Cairo, of a tiny blonde girl with high cheekbones tearing down the sidewalk on her roller skates. A few years later while Robbin was dating my oldest friend, Don Maben and I was seeing Theresa Ceracini, Laura was wanting to hang out with her big sister and her friends. She grew up too fast and became all of ours little sister. She was my riding partner on occasion a real "Harley Girl" but she would ride my Triumph and Kawi. She had a tough life, she was family, and I will miss her. She goes to be with so many of our Cairo family who left this world, much too soon.
