“ To everyone in the family,
How very sad to have read in the paper that Linda had passed away. I'm in the middle of a terrible cold otherwise I'd have been there to pay my respects to such a warm and wonderful person. Her cheerfulness and kind manner made it always a pleasure to meet up with her. She's one of the people that should have lived a long time. I and many others will never forget her.
May she rest in the peace and love of God's kingdom. She will be in the company of all our loved ones who have gone on before. What better place to be but at home with them even though we will miss her smiling face here.

With my deep and sincere sympathies,
Louise Profera Wills
