

Margaret A. DeFlumer

April 18, 1930 - March 18, 2017

Margaret A. DeFlumer, 86, entered into eternal life on March 18, 2017 at Columbia Memorial hospital, Hudson, N.Y.

She was born on April 18, 1930 in Athens, NY, to the late Theodore and Adeline Laibach Goesch.

She was a lifelong resident of the village of Athens. She graduated from Athens High School. Prior to her retirement, in 1993, she was employed by the NYS Office of the State comptroller for 28 years. She was a member of The Zion Lutheran Church, in Athens. Above all, she loved her family and her home, also cooking, gardening and jigsaw puzzles were her special interests. She was the devoted and loving mother of Sharon and Lucinda DeFlumer who survive her. In addition to her daughters, she is survived by two nieces, several cousins, and many friends.

Besides her parents, she is predeceased by her sister Evelyn, her brother Theodore Jr. and her ex husband Joseph DeFlumer, Jr. She was also predeceased by her faithful canine companions, Suzy, Buffy and Molly. Private calling hours and funeral will be held.

Memorial services at a later date.

Her family would like to thank the second floor nursing staff of Columbia Memorial Hospital for the care they gave her during her recent hospital stays; especially Regina and Theresa who loved her and cared for her like family.

Also, the family sends a special thank you to Madison and Steve for their love help and support over the past few months. Also the family would like to thank Pastor Dietrich and members of Zion for their prayers and concerns.

Contributions in her memory may be made to Zion Lutheran Church, Athens, or to The Columbia Greene Humane Society, Hudson, NY.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Richards Funeral Home, 28 North Vernon Street, Athens, NY.

Condolences may be made at www.richardsfuneralhomeinc.net.
