“Maggs, My memories of you will always be all the fun and crazy things we did in Kearney. I can't remember a day that you didn't make us all laugh with your antics. But besides that, you were one of the kindest, sweetest people I knew. Your talent working on plays was amazing. Of course school trips were memories that we will always cherish and laugh about.

Thank you for being the beautiful person you were. Heaven is a funnier place since you're there.

One memory that can't be forgotten... MR. BILLLLLLLL...

Love to you always M.A.

“Maggie, it's quite possible you were the funniest friend in HS. The joy you exuded was contagious and everyone wanted to be around you because that joy made the day better for all. The memories are forever stuck in my head, the Wizard of Oz, Destry, the school trips, the prom, great times that will never be forgotten. Thanks for all you gave to us, sweet friend...the smiles, the laughs, the tears. The world was a better place with you in it. Until we meet again, rest easy. Godspeed, Maggie! 🙏💕🙏

“ I only met Maggie a couple of times. I only know her personally through my dear friend M.A., Maggie's sister. I know her because of the love that M.A. had for her sister. She shared so many personal and wonderful remembrances of Maggie that you couldn't help but feel like you knew her well. If she was half the person that M.A. is to me you would be lucky to have known her. Rest in peace Maggie.

Maggie Dear, It's Suzanne from Ricky's bnack in NYC. I found your obituary online by some odd coincidence. I am in total shock and sadness. I have no idea what happened. It's been quite a while since I've seen you, but you will be very missed. RIP my dancing friend... 💙
