“ Mom and I send our deepest sympathy. You and my Mom were such good friends from what I can remember from my childhood growing up as neighbors in Brooklyn. For some reason at this moment what I remember the most you and Betty sitting at your table chatting away while you chipped up ice with a spoon and you would eat the small pieces. But most of all we we're blessed, we had a chance to reunite and see one another a few years back in Florida. And it was wonderful to see you where just as cheerful than as you were whe I was a kid. You will be missed. RIP Love always Terry and Betty
