

MaryLou Brandow

June 22, 1939 - March 28, 2021

MaryLou Brandow, age 81 years of Cairo, New York, passed away on March 28, 2021.

She was born on June 22, 1939, in Floral Park, New York, and is the daughter of the late John Joseph and Louise Mary Lang.

Besides her parents, she is predeceased by her loving husband Donald S. Brandow Jr., who passed away on June 1, 2015, her grandson Westin Sydney Alfeld who passed away on June 14, 2018 and her brother John J. Lang. Survivors include her daughters Debbie Carl (David), Margaret Fortman (William), Colleen Brandow and Donna Wright (Christopher). She is also survived by four grandchildren William J. Alfeld III, Halle, Mariah and Ivy Wright.

During MaryLou's lifetime, she loved spending time with her children and grandchildren, always putting family first. She would make it a point to be involved in her children and grandchildren's special events. She loved traveling with family, especially enjoying the beach and ocean. She enjoyed NASCAR and football.

Graveside services will be held on Monday, April 5, 2021, at 11:30 A.M. St. Patrick's Cemetery, Catskill, New York.

Donations in MaryLou's memory may be made to Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy, 401 Hackensack Avenue, Hackensack, New Jersey, 07601, or to The Cairo American Legion Post #983, P.O. Box 329, Cairo, New York, 12413.

“ I have many memories of MaryLou and Donny and one of my most favorite memories will always be going to their house for Easter with us girls and the boys all dressed up and playing in their yard and finding eggs. MaryLou's house was always so just so perfect, from the heartwarming feeling you had when you arrived to the tidy way she kept the house and to the yummy food she always had to eat. This Easter I will be thinking about you. I pray for strength for your family and that they carry you in their hearts through the many years worth of wonderful memories they all shared with you. You will be greatly missed.

Love, Leah
