“ I'm flabbergasted that Maura is gone, I'm even more flabbergasted that she existed at all.

Ahe was so cool, sweet and supportive that it blows my mind.

I just found out today the awful news.

Damn, life is short.

I wish we could have been more than just mere comedic acquaintances,

You passed the friendship test, too many times to count.

I love you, you funny bitch.

“ Maura. Not only were you a mother, daughter, and friend. You were my Irish sidekick. I miss you every single day. Thank you for being a part of my life. Comedy will never be the same. Thank you for believing in me. When I didn't believe in myself. I will never forget you.. You are my sidekick now and forever.. I Love you. And may you rest in peace my sister comedian.

“ Maura was one of the most down-to-earth people I have ever met. Always supportive. Always a smile. Always brutally honest on stage, which is not an easy thing to do in front of strangers. Maura has left us way too soon. Your legacy will forever remain. RIP my friend and condolences to all who had the privilege to know you - "Gavin Roberts"

“ I miss you, Maura. Everyone liked you and your company. as iis clear from all these posts. I enjoyed talking to you.

I just realized we both had our grandmother's middle name!

Dylan Thomas said, 'Rage, rage against the dying of the light.' We are all lighting candles to remember your light.

“ I just had Maura on my comedy show a couple of weeks ago. She was always such a pleasure to be around. She was an amazing comedian and cracked me up with her dry sense of humor. My condolences to all of her family, especially her son who she clearly loved so much. Gone way too soon! I'll see you on the other side my friend. ~Shawn

“ I had the pleasure of sharing the stage more than once with Maura, she was who she was, both on stage and off and I liked that about her. I feel for her son and pray that he always remembers how much she loved him. RIP Maura, thanks for the laughs.

“ My greatest sympathy goes to her son and close family. I remember hanging out in her crows nest (she knows what that is) with every spare time I had and my days off the whole day till late night. I only had one good friend in fourth grade and you far surpassed that. I will never forget your smile and laugh. Your personality was very rich. I can't wait to see you again. I miss and love you. Now you can be loved by Gods love. ❤️

“ I knew Maura just a little until the past year. We spoke most about her getting Michael back. She was a great person & I'm sad & angry that she's gone. I hope some of us can stay in touch with Michael, those of us who also have children & helped them get back together. Maura's going to be missed by many people. _Nic

“ Maura,
I only knew you a short time through stand-up comedy. I honestly think that the comedians knew you and you knew us as well as people could know one another. It doesn't take long to get to know a person when they tell their life story on stage. It was obvious that you were smart and passionate about everything that you were talking about. You loved comedy and you brought energy to the stage that no one could ignore. I know that you left an impact on the comedy scene in Albany. You are gone, but you will never be forgotten.
