“ Edward and family, both Dave and I want to send our sympathy to all of you.
I worked with Maureen in the Child Support Unit for many years and keep in touch with her through our Christmas cards each year and some time in e-mails. she always told me about a new grand baby and how happy she was.
I hadn't know that Maureen was sick so it can as a shock to me.
We shared Christmas cards together for years and she always told us about the kids and the grand kids . She was Oh so proud of all of them. Family was here hole life.
God bless all of you and you are all in our thoughts and prays .

“ A kind sweet woman has left behind a legacy of love and kindness. Maureen, with her quiet lilting laugh, her incredibly wry humor and her generously of spirit is gone. She shall be missed by her husband Eddie. She shall be missed by her loving children and their spouse and by her amazing and adored grandchildren. She shall be missed by her extended family and her friends - old and new. And she shall be missed by her community. A good soul no longer walks among us, but she is with us in memories and in her good deeds. —
