“ It was an unalloyed pleasure to see Mike at the feiseanna. Always good for a chat, never any complaints. When he came to Torrington Feis as a vendor, which he did for most of our years, he was always accommodating, and a good tonic for all the feis-day jitteriness. Generous, too – letting us piggy-back on lessons from an Irish teacher he had over decades ago, without expecting anything in return. Nice memories. Condolences to the family; he’ll be missed.

“ To Jeanne and family: While I did not personally know Michael I knew of him through the on line postings of his lovely wife, Jeanne. I could tell he had an excellent sense of humor and he was a huge animal lover. I think you would have had to live under a rock to not have heard of Michael and his Irish Dance school in Greene County in the Irish Alps. I am heartbroken for his family. Another good one gone way too soon. I am sure you will all hear wonderful funny stories of Michael over the next few weeks and hopefully it will help heal some of the pain. My sympathy to you all.
