

Mina C. Engelmann

March 31, 1930 - November 28, 2020

Mina C. Engelmann, age 90, of Cairo, NY passed away peacefully on November 28, 2020. Mina was born on March 31, 1930, in Mount Vernon, NY and was the daughter of the late C. Fred Metzler and Susan (Urig) Metzler. Mina is survived by her four children, Fred Engelmann (Eileen Ferrier), Gail LeSuer, Carol Engelmann, and Mina Byrne, 13 beautiful grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Kathleen Metzler and several nieces and nephews. Mina is predeceased by Fred, her loving husband of 60 years, her son-in-law James B. LeSuer, sister Claire Fisher (Jack) and brother Fred Metzler, brothers-in-law Henry (Carolyn) Engelmann and Walter (Peggy) Engelmann. As well as being a wonderful homemaker, Mina worked over 20 years as a waitress in the Malden Hot Shoppes. Several years later, she decided to open her own business. The Calico Hen in Cairo, NY was a place where she enjoyed forming relationships with her customers. Her customers loved visiting as Mina was cheerful, caring and loving. She enjoyed knitting, sewing, and other crafts. Aside from her shop, she loved cooking and baking at any time, but especially for the holidays. Each year, she would bake 15 different types of Christmas cookies with her loving family. She made sure to teach several of her grandchildren the specialty of baking. Most of all, she loved being with her family in the place she called "home" for 63 years.

“ I will miss you (and have been missing you), great aunt Mina. I will always cherish the many Thanksgivings that we were able to spend with you, Fred, and the rest of the family. Your spunkiness will not be forgotten! You were as tough as you were loving. And as I write this, fittingly, the song "Hallelujah" is playing. Rest in peace, Mina.
