“ Dear Aunt Doe, Michael, Nichelle and family. We are very sorry to hear of Uncle Orlon's passing. Such a sweet, funny, kind man. How he made us laugh until we cried with his funny stories! I'll always remember his infectious smile and that contagious laughter. The world was a brighter place because of him. We will miss him dearly! We love and miss you! Our thoughts and prayers are with you, love Sheila and Kevin

“ *Dear Dorothy, Nichelle, Michael and Family,
I first met O.G. and Dorothy when I bought the townhouse next door in Oct. of 1999.
From day one, I couldn't have met two more lovely, kind and giving friends. O.G. was always coming to my rescue with my inept house projects gone awry. We had so many laughs and adventures over the years. I am grateful to have known him. Not a day will go by when I don't think of him and his many kindnesses. I know how much he loved you and how much he will be missed. May God bless and comfort you and give you His peace. Linda*
