Patricia A. Russo

December 28, 1942 - January 2, 2022

A kind, beautiful, courageous soul has departed to seek its heavenly reward. Comforted within the cocoon of her loving family, Patricia Ann Russo (nee McQuade) slipped painlessly away as she slept after a hard-fought battle with cancer. Pat's career entailed serving others, as a babysitter to several Staten Island families and as a short order cook and counterperson at Hartmann's Kafeehaus in Round Top, New York. A devoted wife and mother, Pat's were always labors of love, whether she was cooking for family holidays, fundraisers and parties or crafting wreathes, flower arrangements and rosary beads. Pat leaves behind her husband of 58 years, Nicholas G. Russo, son Daniel Russo (Monique), daughter Marie Forlenza (Ted), and Christine Healy (Owen), as well as several grandchildren. Visitation at the Matthew Funeral Home, Inc., 2508 Victory Boulevard, on Tuesday, 1/4, from 5:00 to 8:00 pm. Visitation at the Richards Funeral Home, 29 Bross Street, Cairo, NY 12413, on Friday, 1/7, from 9:00 am to 11:00 am. Wearing of face masks, regardless of vaccination status will be required, and pandemic guidelines for safety due to the Covid19 Pandemic will be adhered to for everyone's protection. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Joseph's Church at 11:30 am in Round Top, NY, followed by burial in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Round Top, NY. Condolences may be made at www.richardsfuneralhomeinc.net.

Pat and I met when her Christine and my Jason were going into kindergarten, oh way back when in 1985. They became fast friends and so did we. While they went through elementary school and junior high, Pat and I did things together, PTA things , craft hobbies and whatever caught our attention and desire for creativity and fun. After the kids finished high school Pat moved north and I moved south . Even though distance kept us apart, whenever we got together it felt natural and like we never were apart. Given the chance Pat and I would've become besties. Pat will be missed by many including me. May she Rest In Peace. My sincerest condolences to all of you close to Pat and loved by her.
