“ My dear dear sister - I am struggling with the fact that you have been taken from us. I know it's selfish but I want you back. I want to give you a BIG hug and never let go!
I can't tell you how much you have given me over our lifetime. You really filled this world with LOVE & TENDERNESS! I know that God is caring for you now too, along with Mom, Edie, Sue, & Frankie. You have also joined Frank, Dad, & Ed,

I wasn't finished (I do not like touch screen phones- Grhhhh)
Dear God will take care of you along with all of the other beautiful ANGELS I mentioned above. I know that you are in good hands - Gods hands and that is so very comforting to me, because if I cannot see you, feel you, be with you...I cannot think of any place I'd rather you be!
\0/ God Bless you SWEET ANGEL! God Bless you my beloved sister. Without you I would not be who I am. I am so very THANKFUL that we got to have you for the years we did together. RIP dear one. XOXOXO
