“ Our deepest sympathy to our cousins on the passing of their dear father and grandfather. He is at peace and will be with his first love, your mom, your grandmother- Betty! I know the angels carried him up to paradise to rest in the palms of God's precious hands. My mom always referred to Peter "as her other brother".

My mom and dad chose him to be my godfather when I was christened. Pete was sacred to that job. He was always there for me to guide me and to mentor me. He will always hold a special place in my heart.

Rest peacefully, Pete. Please kiss all our dear family members who you are now happily with - I have a vision of you all sitting around grandma's table eating a holiday dinner!!! And, by all means, kiss my brother, Anthony for me!

May God comfort you all and may his memory live on in all our lives.

Love,

Mary Jane, Arthur and family
