

Peter Thomas Tarallo

November 2, 1996 - August 4, 2024

Peter Thomas Tarallo, age 27, of Cairo, NY, passed away on August 4, 2024.

Peter was born on Saturday November 2nd, 1996, at what was then called LaGuardia Hospital in Forest Hills, Queens, which changed names after 1996 to Long Island Jewish Forest Hills. He was born to his mother Catherine Free and his father Angelo Tarallo.

He is predeceased by both his maternal grandparents (Mary Lynch and Robert Free), as well as his paternal grandparents (Salvatore and Elvia Tarallo).

Peter leaves behind his mother, father, older sister Tina Tarallo, eldest sibling Thomas O'Brien, as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and cousin's children.

Being born in Queens, he spent his early years growing up with his parents, grandma Mary Lynch and older siblings in College Point. His mother, grandmother, and sister Tina all moved to Cairo in August 2000. They both went to Cairo Elementary and Cairo-Durham Junior-Senior High School. When he was young, he had lots of hobbies over the years; he played football, loved watching WWE, tried skateboarding, and lots more. When he was about 8, he got to meet his favorite wrestler John Cena at a comic shop in Whitestone, Queens.

Peter had personal struggles with mental illness starting in his teens, finding comfort in religion as he got older. His illness sometimes changed his personality, but he tried to think of his family always. He wanted his siblings and mother to know that he still loved them and didn't want them to hate him for how he could sometimes be. We believe he finally found the peace and silence that he needed.

Family friends and relatives alike are welcome to visit a memorial service at Angel's Family Restaurant, 4318 Route 23, Cairo, 12413, on Friday August 23, 2024, from 4:30 to 7:30 PM in the separate back room of the restaurant for privacy reasons. Clergy services will be held at approximately 6:45 PM the same day.
