Tribute Wall

“ Dear Terry, Michael, Heather, and Bob, Jr.,

Nan and I wish to tell you how sad we were to learn of Bobby's death.

I've known Bobby for all his 70 years. I remember him growing up on Allen Street and up in the Grandview area. And I remember how much he enjoyed staying with Grandma Terps, and was often there with my son Michael.

When Nan and I drove up from New York for your wedding, it was her first introduction to the Cardinales, and to you. Nan always said she thought Bobby had made a good choice when he married you. I agree.

Bobby was one of a kind. We will miss him as will all whose paths he crossed.

Our heart goes out to you in your loss and grief. You have our sincere condolences.

Uncle Bobby was one of my favorites in the family. I know he had a lot of struggles during his lifetime... But he still was always nice and kindhearted to Jim and I. I've always appreciated him for that. I truly am so very sorry for all of your loss. I'm also sorry for the loss of him to the rest of us. When he would come down to Florida almost yearly and stayed at my parents home, I always loved listening to the stories he would tell of his past. I know it's a great loss to my dad, his brother, Joe. He just hasn't been the same since. I hope that he, Michael, and Jim are all together and loving the complete serenity of heaven. They all know that the people they left behind are sad and in great pain. But I'm sure they don't want us all to be. The only thing that gives me personally ANY KIND OF ACCEPTANCE AND PEACE is knowing that one day we will all be together again!!

There's been way too many losses in your family alone. I pray for you Aunt Terri and Heather that somehow you can still find some great things in life that you will someday be able to truly enjoy. I myself, have not yet. Maybe one day I'll actually make it up for a visit and we can all talk about the healing, coping and all that that entails.?? Because I just don't seem to be able to handle any of it very well at all. Too many losses in just a short period of time.

I send my love and deepest condolences to you all.

Love,

Melissa Ann
