

Robert J. Clark, Jr.

March 9, 1985 - April 29, 2024

Robert J. Clark, Jr., "RJ", of Athens, NY passed away on April 29, 2024.

RJ was born on March 9, 1985 in Catskill and raised in Athens.

A scholar athlete, he won many awards and certificates for his achievements in football, basketball and baseball. RJ was recruited by many colleges and universities throughout high school, and played baseball in college.

RJ was incredibly intelligent. He graduated from UAlbany with a bachelor's degree in economics with a minor in finance. RJ had very sensitive heart, loved all dogs, gave really great hugs, and had an exceptionally green thumb- You would often find him talking to his plants when he fertilized them each Sunday. RJ loved to vacation to Maine and was an exceptional cook. He was a diehard Yankees fan and he shared that passion with his father, rarely missing a game on television or by radio.

RJ is survived by his son, Christian (Victoria Apa), mother, Marjorie, sister, Casey Dragoon (Rob), nephew Robbie, and niece Presley. RJ is predeceased by his father, Robert, and his brother, Michael.

Private funeral services will be held for the family.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks donations be made to Greene County

Animal Alliance in RJ's name.

Arrangements are under the direction of Richards Funeral Home of the Mid-Hudson Valley, Inc., 29 Bross Street, Cairo, New York, 12413.

Im very sorry to hear about Roberts passing. I had the pleasure of meeting him in the Bronx on Arthur ave along with his friend Benny. Robert was full of laughs, and overall a very good soul. We had a great time in Arthur ave eating sandwiches bigger than our heads and going home with bags of sausages and olive oil. I only wish we had more time together. God bless Benny for being there for him in his final days and moments, so that he wasn't alone.
