“ From Honeyford Memorial American Legion Post 110 of Catskill our sincere condolence. I met Roger two times, what a wonderful singer and handsome man. While we normally do a funeral parlor service for our members and are part of the Honor Guard grave site services, I see that you wishes are to keep it. private..
On Saturday, May 21 at 1:00 we preform an Memorial Service for all Catskill and Athens service members that have passed in the previously twelve months. We will be reading out their names, mentioned their past services and ringing the bell for each. You and yours are cordially invited to attend this solemn service. If we can be of any assistance call me at 518-318-2286. Again our condolence's and may Roger rest in peace.

“ I remember Roger very well--great guy. His brother Doug was married to my sister Patricia who passed away in 2017. I hadn't known that Roger served onboard the carrier USS Ticonderoga---I served on the carrier USS Ranger, (CVA-61) for almost 3 years, I also saw Roger at a couple Rotary meetings that I attended with my good friend Dennis O'Grady. To the family, please accept our heartfelt condolences.

Sincerely, John and Peggy
