“ Scott was such a loving man! No matter what life's troubles were thrown in his way, he fought through. And he loved strong. He never let anything come in the way of the love he had for his children and grandchildren. I only mother one of his grandchildren, and he was an awesome GrandFather, but he even loved my other children and always treated them like his own. Scott was funny, outgoing, courageous, spiritual, strong and caring and loving of course. He had a unique laugh and deep voice, you always knew when he was around. I'm so grateful to have met him and to have had him a part of mine and my family's life as long as we did. I wish it could've been longer. But I know him and his son Lukas Sr are finally together again watching over us, over my son, and over the rest of the family. May God rest his soul peacefully! He will be forever missed!💔
