“ Sheila was one of my best friends and coworker at Hannaford. She was very sweet and was there for me whenever I needed someone to talk to. I have so many great memories of her and she was always so festive for every holiday we got to dress down she would always dress for the occasion.

“ To all the family and other friends of Sheila. She was one of the sweetest souls you could have ever get to know. She worked at Foodtown with my wife Kristine for many years and the two became good friends. That's how I got to know Sheila myself, I am Kristine's husband, Jay. We always kept in contact with her as she moved from New Jersey to North Carolina then to New York to be closer to her family. Sheila was always working hard where ever she was at and always spoke about her grandchildren. She will be dearly missed by all of us. Rest in peace. Kristine, Jay & Family

“ Talk about a worker... she worked at Macys during the early morning then Foodtown at night..
She was proud of her accomplishments and did what she had to do to get by. She was even more proud of her kids and grandkids.. we heard countless stories about every single one of them. The favorite I can remember is her granddaughter calling her gram cracker!! Sheila could make a meal out of ritz crackers and a scoop of tuna.
I would hear from Sheila around Christmas time and say hello. She will be missed !! My condolences to her family.
